

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

I think that allowing people to use their cell phones on planes is a horrible idea. Besides the security risks of the possibility of the phones interfering with the planes communications systems, it would be very disruptive to other passengers for people to be using their phones in such close quarters on a plane. I know I would be very angry to hear it, and I enjoy the fact that a plane is the one place that you can avoid the rampant cell phone usage.

Please leave the current rules in effect.

Sincerely,

Robert Randall Jr.
